

FINE RESTAURANTS & VILLAS – PURI BAWANA

Edition 5.4 Dec '08 – Jan '09

Villa Puri Bwana is located in Berawa Canggu, not far from the Canggu beach, which is renowned for its world-class surf breaks. The area is home to some of the most impressive villas on the island and has views on clear days to Bali's mountains in the distance. This out of town setting offers the double attraction of being close to the shops and restaurants of Seminyak, approximately 20 minutes away, while also presenting a fascinating insight into the traditions of rural Bali.

The 5-bedroom Villa Puri Bwana, complete with 30-metre swimming pool, is sited on 70 are of land surrounded by rice fields and bordered by a small river at the bottom of the sloping block of land.

Designed by the internationally acclaimed architect, Guy Morgan, the villa is integrated into the natural terraced slope of the land and keeps the original lay-out of the rice-fields. The owners also own the land adjacent where the same contoured terraces continue rice-field configuration. The villa comprises of a series of thatched along-along roofed pavilions, housing a large open Living Pavilion, which also acts as the main entrance and reception area, an elevated Dining Pavilion, an Entertainment Room, two Kitchens and four Bedrooms, complete with a 'pill-over' kids or nanny's bedroom. The buildings are linked by pergola-covered walkways, achieving a unique sense of space within a natural, very large setting. Maximising the spectacular views and the natural light, and catching the cool breezes even at the hottest time of year, the property offers a blend of air-conditioned comfort and tropical open-air living. There are numerous relaxation areas, so guests will always find a private spot for peace and quiet. It is ideal for large groups or families with older kids.

The overall feel of Villa Puri Bwana is of space and tranquillity. The space between buildings and living areas offers much privacy for guests and it is an ideal location for a wedding or large gathering. The construction and finishing is second to none overseen by a professional team of designers and builders. The interiors were designed by Cempaka. Fitted kitchen cabinets were made by Casamoderno. Built by Tunas Jaya Samur Contractors.

TRANQUIL TERRACES IN CANGGU

Villa Puri Bawana is a beautiful rental villa in Canggu and ideal for your next holiday or wedding in Bali.

Text by Rachel Love

Villa Puri Bawana is located in Berawa Canggu, not far from the Canggu beach, which is renowned for its world-class surf breaks. The area is home to some of the most impressive villas on the island and has views on clear days to Bali Mountain's in the distance. This out of town setting offers the double attraction of being close to the shops and restaurants of Seminyak, approximately 20 minutes away, while also presenting a fascinating insight into the traditions of rural Bali.

The 5-bedroom Villa Puri Bawana, complete with 30-metre swimming pool, is sited on 70 are of land surrounded by rice fields and bordered by a small river at the bottom of the sloping block of land.

Designed by the internationally acclaimed architect, Guy Morgan, the villa is integrated into the natural terraced slope of the land and keeps the original layout of the rice fields. The owners also own the land adjacent where the same contoured terraces continue rice-field configuration. The villa comprises of a series of thatched alang-alang roofed pavilions, housing a large open Living Pavilion, which also acts as the main entrance and reception area, an elevated Dining Pavilion, an Entertainment Room, two Kitchens and five Bedrooms, complete with a 'spill-over' kids' or nanny's bedroom. The buildings are linked by pergola covered walkways, achieving a unique sense of space within a natural, very large setting. Maximizing the spectacular views and the natural light, and catching the cool breezes even at the hottest time of year, the property offers a blend of air-conditioned comfort and tropical open-air living. There are numerous relaxation areas, so guests will always find a private spot for peace and quiet. It is ideal for large groups or families with older kids.

The overall feel of Villa Puri Bawana is of space and tranquility. The space between buildings and living areas offers much privacy for guests and it is an ideal location for a wedding or large gathering. The construction and finishing is second to none overseen by a professional team of designers and builders. The interiors were designed by Cempaka. Fitted kitchen cabinets were made by Casamoderno. Built by Tunas Jaya Sanur Constructors.

Villa Puri Bawana

Total living area : 1100m2
Total grounds : 7000m2
Low season price : US$ 1025 ++ per night
High season price : US$ 1150 ++ per night
Peak season price : US$ 1425 ++ per night